

Question & Answers

Why should I licence my Motor Vehicle?

The Road Traffic Act & Regulations require that any Motor Vehicle or Trailer be registered and licenced before it is used on any public road.

What documents do I need to register and licence a new motor vehicle?

- Valid Certificate of Fitness
- Valid Insurance Certificate or Cover note
- Sales invoice from Motor Car Dealer, if not privately imported
- Copy of Import Entry (C87)
- Valid ID (Passport, Driver's Licence or National ID)
- Taxpayer Registration Number (TRN)
- Completed application for Motor Vehicle transaction form (MVO1)
- Pay applicable fees at cashier
- An authorization letter from the individual or company accompanied with a valid ID (Passport, Driver's Licence, or National ID) is required if a bearer is completing transaction. The letter must be stamped at the Stamp Office and registered at the Registrar General's Department (RGD)

NB * A vehicle may be licenced for 6 or 12 months.

What documents do I need to transfer a motor vehicle?

- Certificate of title stamped on the reverse side.
- Valid Certificate of Fitness
- Valid Insurance Certificate or Cover note
- Valid ID (Passport, Driver's Licence or National ID)
- Taxpayer Registration Number (TRN)
- Completed application for Motor Vehicle transaction form(MVO1)
- Pay applicable fees at cashier
- An authorization letter from the individual or company accompanied with a valid ID (Passport, Driver's Licence, or National ID) is required if a bearer is completing transaction. The letter must be stamped at the Stamp Office and registered at the Registrar General's Department (RGD).

NB *

1. Applicant must return to the Tax Office where section 1 on the reverse of the Title was stamped.
2. A vehicle may be licenced for 6 or 12 months.

What documents do I need to renew my Motor Vehicle Licence?

- Expired Motor Vehicle Registration
- Valid Certificate of Fitness
- Valid Insurance Certificate or Cover Note

NB * For renewal of P.P.V. or C.C. Motor Vehicle Licence, the Road Licence or letter from the Transport Authority is required.

What should I do, when I purchase a second-hand Vehicle?

- Ensure that the engine and chassis numbers on the documents corresponds with those on the motor vehicle.
- Ensure that there is a title for the vehicle to be purchased